

Otis' Old Curiosity Shop

application

Remove Watermark Now

Otis' Old Curiosity Shop is a temporary holiday shop set up within Loganberry Books. During November, December and January, the Annex Gallery is filled with holiday delights and gift-giving favorites, including local artists' works and crafts, vintage collectibles, new games, collectibles, and knick-knacks.

We are seeking a variety of artists and craftspeople to fill our little holiday shop. If you think that you have something to offer for Otis' Old Curiosity Shop, please pick up a registration form at Loganberry Books. Applications are due by November 1.

Artwork

All artwork must be original and priced for sale. Local artists are preferred. Jewelry and other gift items tend to sell best, but we also accept small paintings, prints, etc. Displays will be set up by Loganberry staff. We reserve the right to refuse anything we might consider inappropriate. Each local artisan will be allocated a shelf space about 10.5" x 25.5" x 12" in size. Hanging pieces will be displayed in varying locations around the store.

Publicity

Tell all your friends, family, co-workers, and neighbors! We will promote the event on our website, e-newsletter, social media, and events calendars. We expect that you will help to promote the event with your own email, website, and social media.

Customers & Sales

All sales go through Loganberry Books. We are happy to accept cash, check, Visa or MasterCard, to provide bags as needed, and to charge and report sales tax. We do not share customer information.

Financial

Commission is 30%. Artwork is insured up to $5,000 wholesale. An itemized sales records and payment will be rendered within two weeks of show's closing.
